What is ELSS?

An Equity Linked Savings Scheme (ELSS), is a type of mutual fund, with a lock-in period of 3 years that's best suited for long-term wealth creation as majority of its corpus is invested in equities. It falls under Section 80C of the Income Tax Act, 1961, which means it allows you to get a tax deduction on investments of up to ₹1,50,000!

Why should you invest in PGIM India ELSS Tax Saver Fund?

- PGIM India ELSS Tax Saver Fund is an open ended equity linked savings scheme with a statutory lock-in of 3 years and tax benefit under Section 80C of the Income Tax Act, 1961.
- Invest upto Rs.1,50,000* in PGIM India ELSS Tax Saver Fund and save tax upto Rs.46,800* u/s 80C.
- The Scheme has a diversified equity portfolio across market capitalizations and is suitable for wealth creation.
- It has flexibility to increase or decrease exposure to Large, Mid or Small Cap stocks as per market cycles and the Fund Manager's view.
- The scheme's mandated three-year lock-in ensures that you do not react to market swings and continue to remain invested.

How does it compare with other tax saving options under Section 80C?

ELSS has the lowest lock-in period of three years as compared to other options which have a minimum lock-in of 5 years.

PPF - Public Provident Fund, NSC - National Savings Certificate, FD - Fixed Deposit, ULIP - Unit Linked Insurance Plan. The above table is for illustration purpose only. Unlike PPF, NSC and Bank FD, investment in mutual funds is subject to market risks, hence, the performance may not be strictly comparable. The FD rates range as mentioned are rates offered by the State Bank of India on retail term deposits. NSC, Sukanyasamridhi, SCSS, PPF & Bank FD rates are effective as on April 1, 2024. Please consult your financial advisor before investing. Fixed Deposits offer Fixed Rate of Return, while mutual funds are market linked. Bank Fixed Deposits are relatively safer as they are covered under DICGC to the extent of INR 5 lakh per account. *Subject to certain conditions being fulfilled.

Invest in PGIM India ELSS Tax Saver Fund through SIP

- Investing in PGIM India ELSS Tax Saver Fund through the SIP route is smart: Since your investment is through regular installments, your investment benefits from rupee cost averaging. As a result, your average cost of investment may reduce over time.
- SIP + ELSS + Tax Saving: You get the convenience of SIP, growth potential of equity and tax saving benefit under Sec 80C of IT Act as per old regime.
- Invest in ELSS through SIP online in minutes; it is easy and can be done anytime.
- It is affordable to invest in ELSS through SIP: You can invest as low as ₹500 per month through SIP.
- SIP in ELSS is convenient for first-time investors: First-time investors in market linked financial instruments like ELSS may not want to commit too much upfront through lumpsum investment and may find SIP's smaller monthly investment commitment convenient.
- SIP investing in ELSS does not involve any additional charge: If you were to invest lumpsum ₹1,50,000 in ELSS for tax benefit, you can do so by investing ₹12,500 every month for 12 months. There is no additional charge and you still get the tax benefit!

Highlights of PGIM India ELSS Tax Saver Fund

- Depending upon the tax bracket you fall in, if you invest in ELSS up to ₹1,50,000/- you can save up to ₹46,800* (at the highest tax bracket of 30%). Given investments in ELSS are made in the equity markets, your money has the potential to earn better return in the long run, in addition to enjoying tax saving benefits as per old regime.
- When you want to plan for long-term goals, you should also stay invested for a longer period of time, ideally for a minimum period of 3 years. However, based on the different life goals you have in mind, investment can be made for a span of 5-10 years.
- ELSS carries the potential for better returns and is an ideal choice of investment for the long term.
